STRYVE

Striving To Reduce Youth Violence Everywhere

Inventory of Existing Data for Youth Violence Prevention

Type of violence	Potential Types & Sources of Data
	Law enforcement, public safety	Schools & school district	Hospitals, public health	Other
Bullying
Gang violence
Physical violence, aggression, conduct problems
Community violence & crime
Delinquency
Community resources & assets
Other areas of interest

Example from Houston

Type of violence	Potential Types & Sources of Data
	Law enforcement, public safety	Schools & school district	Hospitals, public health	Surveys: • Telephone Survey of 1,000 households • Grade Cohort Study • Peer Survey
Bullying
Gang violence				Phone Survey: Gang membership Grade Cohort Survey: Gang membership
Physical violence, aggression, conduct problems		School records: violence-related injuries School Records: Disciplinary actions (suspensions, punishment, expulsions, referrals to the police)		Violence-related injuries and involvement in fights Phone Survey: Victimization, involvement in fights Grade Cohort Survey: Victimization, involvement in fights Peer Survey: Fighting
Community violence & crime	Police Records: Number of arrests for rape, assault, robbery Police Records: Number of arrests for murder		Vital Statistics: Homicide rates by method
Delinquency

Example from Houston (continued)

Type of violence	Potential Types & Sources of Data
	Law enforcement, public safety	Schools & school district	Hospitals, public health	Surveys: • Telephone Survey of 1,000 households • Grade Cohort Study • Peer Survey
Other areas of interest: Perceptions of safety, attitudes about violence prevention, problem-solving				Phone Survey: Carrying and use of weapons, perceptions about neighborhood Grade Cohort Survey: Carrying and use of weapons Peer Survey: Attitudes about violence prevention, problem solving

NOTE: Community Assets and Resources section was added to the template after Houston completed their inventory.